INTERVIEW INTRODUCTION

"Good day Sir/Madam, my name is <Your Name> (PRESENT ID) and I am working with the Statistical Institute of Belize conducting interviews for the Labour Force Survey.

This survey seeks to collect information on all persons; particularly those 14 years and over. We are collecting data so that it may be used for the development of Belize. Specifically, we are interested in capturing data for employment, unemployment, and persons outside of the labour force.

All information shared will be kept strictly confidential.

Please note that your household will have a chance to enter a raffle once the interview is complete.

Can you kindly answer some questions about your household."

May I start now?

RESPONDENT SELECTION USING KISH GRID

FOR FINANCIAL INCLUSION MODULE

INSTRUCTIONS TO SELECT THE PERSON TO BE INTERVIEWED WITH THE KISH TABLE.

INSTRUCTIONS
Step 1	Determine the number of persons eligible for an individual interview, as indicated by “No. of household members over 18” in the Household Cover Page and circle that same number in the first row of the table
Step 2	Find the last two digits of the unique Household ID number from the Cover Page of the questionnaire, and circle that same number where you find it in the first four columns of the table.
Step 3	Circle the number where these two meet (Row & Column selected). This is the ORDER number (not the person number HL1) of the eligible person that you need to interview among the eligible individuals. For example, if the number is 2, then select the second individual listed in the roster that is older than 18 years old.
Step 4	Record the person number (HL1) of that individual respondent in KG4
Step 5	Carry out the rest of the interview with that person.
